Sounded interesting. Have updates on sked. I'm free as of about 2 PM on Friday. Apparently I'll be in Stewart, which is 35 miles north of Palm Beach. They have a helicopter pad, purportedly, and my friend thinks we'll be staying on property. I've been reserving rooms just in case.

Hi, this is from a friend of mine who used to work with Dolphins. Think I told you the story, life changing deal for him. He was nominated for a grammy with his own show, now reads the news on the local channel here.

On the swimming with dolphin thing-- I highly recommend a dive resort I worked at for a while in the Bay Islands off the coast of Honduras. The resort is called Anthony's Key Resort. It's on the island of Roatan. <http://www.anthonyskey.com/akr/dolphins/index.htm> If you go, ask for Eldon Bolton III, who I used to work with. He heads up the dolphin experience and is a good old boy from Mississippi-- but don't hold that against him. The swim area is incredibly beautiful and big and much better than any I've seen in the U-S. Ugh, now I'm jealous.
